

Dear Sir;

This letter to let you know that I strongly support XM Satellite radio and its weather and traffic reports. The local radio affiliates are mad because they now have some competetion XM provides a valuable service, in it alone can broadcast it's signal without commercials or interruptions all over the continental United States.

We pay to subscribe to XM, and they provide a great service. "LEAVE THEM ALONE"

Harold L. Carrier